Dear Honors Student,

In recognition of your recent outstanding academic record, you will be honored as a Dean's Scholar at the Thirty-Seventh Annual Honors Convocation to be held in the San José State University Event Center at 6:00 p.m., Friday, April 23. The Citation for Excellence, which you will receive at the Convocation, is a commendation for your academic achievement: a 3.65 or better average, with a minimum of 12 graded units, in at least two of the three semesters preceding the Honors Convocation.

The Convocation is sponsored by the Office of the Provost and the Academic Senate. The keynote speaker will be the Outstanding Professor for 1998/99. On this celebration of scholarly achievement, we believe it is appropriate that the recipient of this honor address our finest students.

Because parents, spouse, and children are so important to academic success I sincerely hope that you will encourage them to attend and celebrate with you. Because our records no longer contain the names of parents or spouse, I cannot personally invite your family to the Convocation. I ask, however, that you forward the enclosed letter to them, and that you encourage them to attend. Please fill out the enclosed RSVP form and return it to the Office of the Provost (Administration 174) by April 9th. Additionally, I encourage you to use the enclosed form to invite your favorite faculty and/or staff member to the event.

Dean's Scholars are requested to arrive by 5:30 p.m. and check in at the appropriately marked table in the lobby of the Event Center located on the corner of Seventh and San Carlos Streets. Free parking will be available in the Seventh Street garage. I look forward to seeing you on April 23rd!

The faculty and I will be there to congratulate you and your family.

Sincerely,

Lela G. Noble
Dean
